

Integrated Safety Management

Integrated Safety Management is a process to systematically integrate safety into management and work practices at all levels so that work is accomplished while protecting the worker, public, and the environment.

- Plan the work
- Assess the hazards
- Control the hazards
- Conduct the work
- Provide feedback and improvement

For more information, contact Richard DeBusk, x 2976